DUALS

Collection autumn/winter 2012

In this collection Individuals reacts with passion and force to today's society with a raw street wear collection, full of references to the city and to a nomadic lifestyle.

"DUALS" refers to the duel between oneself and the outside world, and to the duality between faith and insecurity. Progress and transience are two red threads running through the collection, seeking the answer to the question: "What time could this be?"
